

Endeavour Scholarships and Fellowships

The Australian Government Department of Education administers the Endeavour Scholarships and Fellowships. The Endeavour Scholarships and Fellowships programme builds Australia's reputation for excellence in the provision of education and supports the internationalisation of Australia's tertiary education and research sectors by offering highly-competitive scholarships, bringing top students from Asia, the Pacific, the Middle-East, Europe and the Americas to study at Australian institutions and supporting Australians to undertake studies research overseas and internships.

The Endeavour Scholarships and Fellowships aim to:

- develop ongoing educational, research and professional links between individuals, organisations and countries
- increase the skills and global awareness of high achieving individuals from Australia and overseas
- contribute to Australia's reputation as a high quality provider of education and training and a leader in research and innovation
- increase the productivity of Australians through international study, research or professional development experience.

Since 2007, a total of 3,818 Endeavour Scholarships and Fellowships have been received by non-Australians and 1,036 have been received by Australians to undertake research, study or professional development across 125 eligible countries.

Funding

Funding for the Endeavour Scholarships and Fellowships programme is provided by the Australian Government. With a budget of $40.6m in 2013-14, the programme typically offers around 500 new scholarships and fellowships each year. The bulk of these are offered to high-achieving overseas applicants, with support ranging from short fellowships or research placements to full postgraduate degrees. Australian applicants also receive support to undertake targeted research, professional development or internships overseas.

Non-Australian Applications

The Endeavour Scholarships and Fellowships offer support to non-Australians to undertake study, research or professional development in Australia. To apply, you must be from a participating country or region.
