Introduction

The CAU International Winter Program (IWP) is a hybrid program providing students with a window into Korea, coupled with courses and cultural experiences that foster an understanding of Korea's culture and society. CAU welcomes students from around the world to enjoy various courses covering Korean culture and society as well as studying the Korean Language. Special Lectures will be offered by some of the top faculties at CAU, as well as Korean culture and society specialists. Students will have numerous cultural and experiential activities diving right into Korean culture and will make lasting friendships with fellow international and local CAU students.

The Program in Brief

The CAU International Winter Program has launched!

Based on the experience of the 7 years of CAU International Summer Program, the CAU Office of International Affairs has opened a new seasonal Short-term Program focused on Korean Studies and Winter Activities. For the past several years, many Asian countries, especially in Southeast Asia, have been swept by the Hallyu wave, or the Korean cultural wave. Never before has one nation spread its culture to others within such a short time and with such speed and enthusiasm, all thanks to the rapidly developing telecommunication technology. Each year, tens of thousands of visitors from other countries have been streaming into Korea, specifically to learn about and personally experiencing its wonderful culture and customs that were introduced to them through the
